Discussions

The team had a long discussion about the progress and what's left to achieve. Hakim is yet to complete the data transformation and promised to round it up by tomorrow. In the meantime, he'll push the working-in-progress to GitHub so everyone can have access to it. Michael has been able to install the FBprophet package we intend to use for forecasting but is still tweaking its usability. He'd be able to try things out once Hakim's done with the data transformation.
