Discussions

The team discussed the issues around the modelling and forecasting task. Michael is working on a way to achieve the forecasting. Also, as a backup, Kelvin has been able to prepare a regression model from the historical data but he's yet to make forecasts using the model.

The planned meeting for brainstorming is still in view.

Hakim and Michael met with Andile today. The team now have a functioning S3 bucket and EC2 to work with. Hakim will commence with test runs to ensure the resources are ready when they'll be needed.
